

OHIO Alliance for Population Health

OHIO
UNIVERSITY

College of Health Sciences and Professions

Now Enrolling

COMMUNITY HEALTH WORKER (CHW) CERTIFICATE PROGRAM

Hosted by Cross Over Community Development (COCD) and delivered in partnership with Ohio University.

Location: COCD Office – 511 Hart Street, Dayton, OH 45404

Schedule: Mondays & Wednesdays | 9:30 AM – 11:30 AM

Program Dates: September 3 – December 10, 2025 (15 weeks)

This in-person program equips participants to become certified Community Health Workers (CHW), vital members of healthcare teams who connect individuals and families to services and improve health outcomes.

INSTRUCTOR:

Kerri A. Shaw, MSW, LISW-S, C.CHW

Director, Community Health Workforce Programs

Associate Professor of Instruction

OHIO Alliance for Population Health – Ohio University

PROGRAM

REQUIREMENTS:

100 hours of classroom instruction

130 hours of fieldwork experience

JOB OPPORTUNITIES AWAIT!

Major healthcare providers—including Premier Health—are eager to hire certified graduates.

APPLY NOW!

Applicants must have strong English reading and writing skills.

Placement tests will be administered at the COCD office.

This class is made possible by funding from the former Ohio Center for CHW Excellence, which brings workforce training directly to the Dayton community.

FOR MORE INFORMATION, CONTACT COCD
AT CHRIST LUTHERAN CHURCH, 511 HART ST, DAYTON, OH 45404.

